

BEHAVIOR CHART

7th – 12th grade students

Learning requires dedication, motivation, responsibility, and discipline among other things. In order to encourage students to do their best in the area of discipline, the Cupeyville School administration has established a 100 point conduct grade per semester per class for each student from 7th to 12th grade. Students who follow the established rules and regulations as stated in the Student Handbook and who also follow classroom rules as well, will receive 100 points for outstanding conduct at the end of each semester in each of his or her classes.

However, the following points will be deducted from the conduct grade in each of the following areas every time a student fails to comply with any of the rules listed below.

CUPEYVILLE SCHOOL

Behavior Agreement

This certifies that I have carefully read Cupeyville School's Student's Handbook, classroom rules, and the Behavior Chart, and perfectly understand my responsibilities, duties, and rights as a student at Cupeyville School.

In signing this document, I hereby agree:

1. to follow all the rules and regulations mentioned in all documents for my benefit and that of those around me.
2. to do my best throughout the school year in all the classes.

I also recognize that if I break any of the rules, the teacher and/or administration will reprimand me and take whatever action is necessary to correct the problem according to their better judgement and/or as the Behavior Chart establishes.
