INFORMATION

The SAT test includes questions based on material learned in English courses.

This six-day course reviews the necessary skills assessed as important to the English portions of the Redesigned SAT including reading comprehension and writing. In addition, participants will have the opportunity to become familiar with the SAT format through sample questions and practice. Participants are strongly encouraged to attend each session and do the homework that is suggested.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

At the conclusion of this course, participants should be:

- Familiar with the SAT format
- Able to read and interpret instructions for improving paragraphs, improving sentences, vocabulary, reading comprehension and writing
- Able to read and understand what is presented
- Able to approach the SAT with more confidence
- More prepared to successfully complete the SAT

FEE

The fee for this program, which covers the cost of instruction and the workbook, is $165.

The late registration fee is $200.

Payment may be made by cash or check.

Please, make checks payable to Jennifer Noel.

WORKBOOK

SAT Reading Comprehension and Writing workbooks will be provided. It contains many examples of the types of questions that will be on the SAT.

Students will review many of these questions and examples during class, but are also strongly encouraged to complete more of them while at home between sessions. Any questions that arise can then be addressed at the next session.

This provides a strong learning experience.

REFUND POLICY

Refunds will only be given up to one week prior to the start of each session.

Please Note:

The course will be cancelled if there are less than three students who register by September 17.
