

Required Summer Reading List for Kindergarten

Recreational reading is an important part of a well-rounded education. In an effort to make sure that all students do at least a minimal amount of reading over the summer, the following reading assignments are required for Kindergarten.

Assignment: Read five books and turn in a drawing of each book to your homeroom teacher the first day of school. Please make sure to include the following behind each drawing: students name, title of the book and author.

Objectives:

1. To promote recreational reading during summer vacation.
2. To introduce students to different literary styles.
3. To enhance vocabulary, letter sounds, letter blends, and listening skills
4. To enhance comprehension skills
